How I Spent My Summer Vacation

It has been our family tradition for several years to spend the Fourth of July at Lake Junaluska. Consequently, I usually try and take the first week of July as a vacation. Last year, I took the first two weeks. This year, the Staff Parish Relations Committee generously offered me two additional weeks of time off. It was an incredible gift.

We spent the first week in the mountains of North Carolina, which is always a treat for us. We enjoyed being with friends and family and simply being in the mountains. The second week of July, we joined many of our church family in Guatemala. I have always enjoyed mission trips, but this was the first opportunity we have had for our entire family to go. You have already heard some about the trip, and I'm sure you will be hearing more in the future.

The next couple of weeks we were close to home, enjoying being together and doing odds and ends around the house. It may not sound exciting, but for me it was. While our children enjoy all their activities... and while Susan loves teaching at Rome Middle School... and while I certainly love what I do at Trinity... all that added together does make for crazy schedules. This summer, we had a rare opportunity to spend time together without worrying about who had to be where next. The word recreation literally comes from re-creation. That is what you gave us the opportunity to do... experience again the beauty of God's creation within and without.

I want to say a special word of thanks to last year's Staff Parish Relations Committee chair, Carol Payne. It was Carol who first suggested this idea to the committee. This year's chair Joe Tarpley enthusiastically supported it. Not only did this committee make it possible, but our Administrative Council also was very supportive of the idea. So to them specifically and to the church in general, I want you to know how very much I appreciate this time.

I want to say a special word of thanks to Jim Turrentine. Without Jim's willingness to go above and beyond the call during the month, I would not have been able to take the time. Jim has a true pastor's heart that has blessed all of us. His friendship and wisdom have meant more to me than words could ever express.

Finally, I want to thank God for placing the Campbells in Rome and at Trinity. We are truly blessed.

If it's Sunday, you want to be at Trinity,
David
