When God Speaks

One summer while Max Lucado was in high school he worked laying pipe in a West Texas oil field. At lunch time the workers in the oil field would tell jokes and play cards. "For thirty minutes in the heat of the day," Max says, "the oil patch became Las Vegas- -replete with foul language, dirty stories, blackjack, and barstools that doubled as lunch pails." One day during lunch a supervisor walked toward the workers. "Uh, fellows,' he said. "I, uh, just wanted, uh, to invite..." The workers could tell he was uncomfortable with whatever he was trying to tell them. "I just wanted to tell you that," he tried again, "our church is having a service tonight and I just wanted to invite any of you to come along," the supervisor said. There was silence among the workers. Several stared at the dirt. Others just looked at each other. No one said anything. After saying that he left. Max and the other workers began to laugh .

Five years later Max was a college sophomore struggling with a decision. Max admits he drifted from faith. He wanted to know Jesus again. But the price was too high. His friends might laugh. That's when he thought of the supervisor in the oil field. That supervisor's love for God had been greater than his concern for his reputation. "So I came home," says Max. (Max Lucado, In the Eye of the Storm)

Throughout the pages of the Bible we find a God who loves us and wants the very best for each of us. Sometimes God speaks to us directly. At other times God speaks to us through other persons such as that supervisor. In either case, when God speaks, we must respond one way or another to the voice of God.

Rejoice in the Lord,

Jim

From David's Desk:

It is with many mixed emotions that I let you know that Amy Cavin, our Director of Children's Ministries and Christian Education, has tendered her resignation. We are of course saddened to lose Amy's enthusiasm and joyful spirit from our staff. She has added so much to our church family. And we are grateful for the difference she has made in all of our lives over the last several years. And most of all, we celebrate with her and her family. Her husband David has received a promotion. Sadly for us, it will require them to relocate to Cape Girardeau, Missouri. It will be an exciting time for David, Amy, Alex, Jerrod and Ryne. Soon, we will have an opportunity to say farewell to this family. But now is the time to make sure they are in your prayers during this time of transition. Of course, it is not only a time of transition for them, but also for us.

As we seek a new staff member, our Staff Parish Relations Committee has decided to hire someone for Children and Family ministries. (We are planning on placing the Christian Education responsibilities in existing staff positions.) Our goal is to receive resumes in July and conduct interviews in August. If you are interested, or know someone who is interested in the job of Director of Children and Family Ministries, please have them send a resume to the church office to the attention of "Search Committee" or email it to secretary@trinityumcrome.org. Amy will be with us until September 1st. Keep this process on your prayer list, just below the Cavin Family. Make sure you tell the entire family how much they mean to you.

Community

Staffing Community Kitchen

We are excited about this opportunity to once again be involved in this important ministry in our community. We are only being asked to provide five people, three days a week, four weeks a year. Our fourth week is coming quickly. We need five people to sign up to work from 8:30 – 1:00 on August 30, September 1 & 2. We need at least five, but will take more. Bambi Waters will be coordinating this for us. Contact her to sign up.

Sunday School News

We've completely remodeled our Sunday school room and would like to invite you to drop in and have a look. We offer several amenities including twin cascading water falls, one flows regular the other decaf., free continental breakfast, deluxe padded chairs, air conditioning and a view of the Historic Rome Courthouse and Clocktower. At this time we are unable to provide free wi-fi, but we do enjoy unlimited group knee-mail support. Currently we are working through the "Follow the Rabbi" DVD series of lessons by Ray Vander Laan, a tremendous resource of enlightenment that we would be happy to share. We hope to see you soon; we'll leave a light on for you. Blessings,
