

TRINITY VOICE

Week of July 26, 2009

From David's Desk:

With Appreciation

This week I need to share sad news with you all. Susan Johnston, along with her husband Sam and their three precious daughters are faithful members of Trinity. She has also done a tremendous job as our nursery director. The sad news is that she has turned in her letter of resignation from her position on staff. One of the most important ministries in the life of any church is its nursery. If parents do not feel their children are cared for, they simply will not return. Susan has helped make sure that parents can, with peace of mind, leave their children in the church's care. If you have walked by the nursery on a Sunday morning or Wednesday night, you know what I mean. If you have left a child in the nursery while you were in Sunday school or Bible study or worship, you really know what I mean. As a church family, we owe Susan our collective thanks.

But change is a part of life. Susan's letter says, "Due to my commitment with a new job and with my increasing family obligations, I will no longer be able to serve in this capacity." Many of you know that Susan's parents are in poor health out of state. Please keep them in your prayers. The good news in this is that Susan, Sam, Casey, Emily and Ashley will continue to be active in our church family. For this, we are especially grateful.

As you pray for Susan and her family, also pray for the Staff Parish Relations Committee as we search for a new nursery director. If you are interested, or if you know someone who might be interested, you can send a resume to Carol Payne, the chair of that committee. Maybe you are a young mother who feels called to this ministry. Or maybe you are a grandmother who still loves children and feels called ensure their care. If you, or someone you know, is interested, please let us know. Resumes can be sent to "Carol Payne 606 Turner McCall Blvd. Rome, GA 30165" or email it to her at wechalleng@aol.com. We hope to fill the position as soon as possible.

Finally, as you see Susan in the coming weeks, make sure you let her know how much you have appreciated her ministry.

If it's Sunday, you want to be at Trinity,
David

Missions

Thank you, Trinity! What a blessing to be a member of a giving, loving, and supportive church. Our mission trip to Costa Rica was a huge success. We moved dirt, mixed concrete and mortar, laid block, painted a house, taught over a hundred children at Bible School and showed God's love in action. A special thanks to the Sunday School and Bible School donations of money and toy stuffed turtles which were distributed to those children at the church. Thanks again from your Trinity Mission Team.

Rome Action Ministries is in need of food for their pantry. It is not too late to donate to Rome Action Ministries for the Summer Food Kits for children. It is $10 per kit, or you can volunteer at RAM the 3rd Friday of each month packing the kits.
