March Madness for Missions

If you not a sports fan, let me apologize in advance. I am. And this is about Sports. My two favorite times of the year as a sports fan are October and March. In October, the baseball playoffs are going on and football season is well under way. It is a great time. March is great for another reason. Spring Training is happening in Florida, which means opening day is almost here, the Masters is just around the corner... and March Madness. The annual NCAA Basketball tournament is one of the great events in sports. So many dramatic moments in such a short span of time! It is a great time.

It also brings together my love for the NCAA tournament with my love for missions. This is now our fourth year of "March Madness for Missions." This is how it works: Fill out a bracket completely and turn it into the church office or put it in my hands by noon on Thursday, March 19th. You can snail mail it, but make sure it is post-marked by the 18th. (Address it to David Campbell/March Madness 606 Turner McCall Blvd. Rome, GA 30165) You get one point for every first round win, two points for every second round win, etc. The winner gets bragging rights for the year and your name on the plaque. Previous winners are Jeff Ozment, Jim Gipson and Charles Rainwater.

Everyone who participates is encouraged to make a $20.00 contribution to missions. You can write a check to the church and earmark it "March Madness" (We ask that you please write a separate check for your usual contribution.) Of course, we will take cash as well. Two years ago, went to our Costa Rica trip. Last year, it went toward buying malaria nets for children in Africa. This year, our money will go to buying supplies for our Murphy Harpst workday. If you have any question, call me. We will have some fun and support our missions.

If it's Sunday, you want to be at Trinity,
David

Baby-Blanket-Makers

A reminder to all "baby-blanket-makers." It is time make another delivery to Floyd Hospital for the mothers in need. Remember if you knit, crochet, or quilt and would like to make baby blankets for this ministry it would be greatly appreciated. If you have any blankets ready for delivery, please get them to Libby Miller or call her for pick-up (706-235-9065). We would like to make a donation by the week of Mother's Day.

Trinity Guidebook and Directory Plans

Plans are in the works to publish a guidebook and directory for our church. This will not be a pictorial directory that has been done in the past. It will be a guidebook containing helpful information to, not only current members, but also to those new to Trinity. This will be an "in house" undertaking. The cost is estimated to be $400 to $500, which includes copy paper, card stock for the cover, postage for mailing a copy to those who are unable to pick up one after publication, and possibly ink and toner. THIS IS NOT A PROFIT MAKING ADVENTURE! However, to defray the $400 to $500 cost, we are offering an opportunity for individuals and business owners in our church to contribute toward the cause by purchasing advertising space in the guidebook. This gives the opportunity to advertise your business, skill, talent, or hobby within the Trinity family. Prices range from $20-$80 per ad, call the church office for more information. Deadline for ads is March 20th.

We Challenge You!

The Fellowship Sunday School Class challenges all the other Sunday School Classes to donate to the new Church Directory and Guidebook fund

CONGRATULATIONS to . . .

- Ruthann Freeman, who won 3rd place in the Armuchee Elementary 4th grade science fair, in the consumer science division.

- Jamie Rhinehart, who won second place in the Science Fair for the category of animal sciences.

- Timothy Oyler, who received a rating of "excellent" at the piano festival.

- Jonathan Williams, for being selected to the 2009 Georgia Middle School All State Band, the highest honor one can receive in band. Jonathan traveled to Savannah to practice and perform with the All State Band on March 5-7.

- Susan Campbell, who took eight students to All-State Chorus. (We wonder if any other middle school teacher in the state took that many students to All-State.)

SPORTS STARS . . .

- Rachael Turrentine, granddaughter of Jim and Joan, is a member of the undefeated Model Lady Devils, who will play in the State high school basketball tournament in Macon this week.

Announcements

Thank You

I would like to thank everyone for the cards, phone calls, and especially the prayers that were offered for me during my hospitalization and continued recovery. Even though I am so far away LRE still ministers to me. Trinity will always be very special to me.

Love, Dot Massey

The Trustees want to thank everyone who came out and helped with the Spring Cleaning Work Day. It was a huge success and without their support we would not have been able to accomplish all that we did. They all worked very hard and it shows.

Thank you from your Trustees

A BIG thank you to Trinity UMC for helping with the second annual Latino Health Fair held March 7th at the West Rome Boys & Girls Club. 331 Latino adults attended the health fair (and lots of children) and received free health screening and education. Seven Trinity youth and several adults volunteered on the day of the event to help with the towel giveaway, with the children and even with the screening! Trinity's participation in the bath towel drive contributed to the 250+ towels given away at the event. Gracias!

Annette Clairry, RN, MSN

Dear Trinity Family, Thank you for loving our family, believing in our call that God has given us and for partnering with us. You are a blessing to the people of Guatemala and to the Evans family. Sincerely and love,

The David Evans Family
