

TRINITY VOICE

Week of November 1, 2009

From David's Desk:

All Saints Day

This Sunday, we celebrate All Saints Day. John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, wrote this in his journal, November 1, 1789... "Being All Saints Day, a day that I particularly love, I preached... and we rejoiced with solemn joy." Wesley saw All Saints Day as a day to celebrate and remember the lives of the saints who have gone on before us.

His brother, Charles, wrote this hymn about the saints who have gone on...

The church triumphant in his love,
These mighty joys we know;
They praise the Lamb in hymns above
And we in hymns below.

As is our tradition, we will hear the names of Trinity's saints who have passed away since November 1st last year. They are

Arthur Ritchey
Frieda Matthews

We will not mourn, but we will celebrate their lives. Also, we will gather around the Lord's table and celebrate the Lord's Supper... with the communion of saints.

I hope to see you there,
David

Missions

Baby Blanket Ministry

Attention all you that participate in the Baby Blanket Ministry and all those who would like to begin. We will make a Christmas delivery to Floyd Hospital for Mother's in need. So get those knitting needles, crochet hooks, sewing needles, or whatever you use to create your blankets with love, flying so that we will have a generous donation for the hospital to distribute over the winter months. Please contact Libby Miller (706-235-9065) if you need your blanket(s) picked up or leave them in the Sunday School office labeled for Libby. Thank you for your continued support in this ministry. Donations are delivered to RAM.

Prayer Concerns

Please help us keep the prayer list updated, if you know of someone who can be removed or needs adding, please call the church office.

Mac Compton	Jeanne Holt
The Matthew's Grandson

Beginning this week, there will be cards available as you enter worship so you may share your joys and concerns. We are asking people to write them down and put them on the pulpit before worship begins. David or Jim will then share them with the congregation. When joys and concerns are shared from the pew, they are often difficult to hear by others and impossible to hear on the audio CD. By moving to this method, we are trying to make sure each concern is heard clearly, so everyone can be praying.

- Natalie Daniel also won an Honorable Mention for her photograph at the Coosa Valley Fair.

Over Fall break, when the Campbell family was in Washington, D.C., a new statue of Helen Keller was unveiled in the Rotunda of the Capital building, while the Campbell's were there. And David, Hannah and Jay were interviewed, about the statue, for the magazine, The Hill. You can read that article at this link. You will need to scroll down to the second article.
